

Give To Your Neighbor Through American Red Cross Flood Relief Fund

HAVE YOU FORGOTTEN?
FLOOD VICTIMS OF SIX STATES NEED YOUR HELP NOW! PLEASE, DON'T DELAY—mail or take your contribution TO DAY to the Hancock County Chapter, AMERICAN RED CROSS, Court House, Bay St. Louis.

AND REMEMBER.
Latest figures (still incomplete) on state totals indicate: 474 injured, 131 hospitalized; 34,606 families suffering loss; 922 homes destroyed; 5,085 homes major damage; 14,702 homes minor damage; 11,036 families expected to register, requiring some degree of assistance to supplement their own resources.

Millions of dollars will be required to restore even a minimum degree of family living to the untold number of victims.

Relief victims of these floods is not only a traditional obligation of the Red Cross—but one imposed by charter of the U. S. Congress.

A major source of relief funds to meet the human needs of the flood victims will come from the American Red Cross, formally designated as the official relief agency in time of natural disasters.

Red Cross aid, which is for INDIVIDUAL FAMILIES, is not to be confused with aid through federal funds, which will be used for restoration of public property and facilities.

All funds contributed through your local Red Cross chapter at this time are earmarked for expenditure only on this flood relief operation.

In the stricken areas, close to 300 armed disaster workers are presently assigned by the Red Cross, which has also marshalled thousands of regular and on-spot volunteers from all walks of life.

Appeals have been made and contributions are now being received from across the nation, from the president on down to the "kid next door."

Quota $250.00
Hancock County Chapter minimum quota has been set at $250.00, with strong recommendations that we try to get more than this if possible.

So far, a little over $200.00 has been collected. One single contribution accounted for $100.00 of this, coming from someone in Waveland. Other contributions ranged from $1.00 to $25.00. Appeals were requested by the local RC that various churches make appeals at their services.

REMEMBER
In the 1947 hurricane, more than $200,000 was spent by Red Cross in Hancock County alone, to assist the people of this stricken area. Red Cross provided emergency assistance of food, clothing, and shelter, followed by rehabilitation in the restoration of damaged or destroyed homes, etc., for those unable to rehabilitate themselves.

Again, following the 1951 tornado, 5 families in the Lakeshore community were given assistance in the amount of $3,000 for damages to their homes.

The work of the Red Cross in time of disaster is that of Neighbor helping Neighbor, of people helping people. Such assistance is always a grant, not a loan.

Library Concludes Summer Program With Awards

The Memorial Library has completed its summer program and feels a justifiable pride in recounting its achievements.

Two book reviews, one by the Reverend Schuyler Baskin and the other by Mrs. Benjamin Nancy of New Orleans, were well attended.

The Magic show, put on by Allan Henderson, formerly of Bay St. Louis, now of Denver, Colorado, delighted an audience of about fifty youngsters and the story hour, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, through 13 weeks has been an unqualified success.

Mrs. Russell Elliott, who has been in charge of the story program, reports that a total of approximately one hundred and fifty children registered in the course of the thirteen weeks. The largest attendance at any one hour was fifty-six, while the least number of children attending was thirty-five.

Children receiving prizes at the last meeting for perfect attendance were Frank and Mary LaGarde, Don and Dotie Estapa, and Joan Frey. Mrs. Joseph Compretta, president of the Auxiliary presented gifts to Jeannie and Betty Martin for their assistance in the program, and Mrs. B. C. Samuel, in the name of the Library Board, presented a scroll of appreciation to Mrs. Russell Elliott.

The library wishes to take this opportunity to thank all of the ladies who assisted Mrs. Elliott in bringing their very fine program to such a successful conclusion. It is hoped that the Auxiliary will resume the Story Hour next summer.

Sidelines On Building Spree

The St. Stanislaus Sidelines Club took three big steps Monday night, which will insure Bay St. Louis of having one of the most complete and up-to-date football stadiums on the Gulf Coast.

The Club authorized the construction of permanent steel stands on the West Side of the field, the construction of a press box and the purchasing of a public address system.

All three of these improvements are promised to be finished before the first home game of this season.

The steel stands will be galvanized and will consist of 1000 seats. These will be erected on the side, which formally was designated as the visitors' side.

The press box will be constructed above the present wooden stands. The lumber for this project was donated by Ed Brignac while the roofing for the building was donated by Earl Ramond.

The work will be done by members of the Sidelines Club. The public address system was offered to the Sidelines Club at wholesale price by Earl Ramond, owner of Ramond's Electric.

This system will service the entire field.

The Sidelines Club also voted to underwrite the cost of movies of the first two Rockaway games this season, with Biloxi and Gulfport. The members feel that this will be a great help to the coaching staff as well as a form of entertainment for the members of the club.

The new scoreboard which was donated to Stanislaus last year, by a nationally known beverage company, is being put up at this time.

Due to the efforts of Eddie Dufrense, a South Louisiana plantation owner, the football field itself, is in top shape.

The first home game for Stanislaus will be held on September 23.

BAY HIGH, STANISLAUS CONTINUE PREPS FOR SEASON'S OPENING

Monti, Holden Looking Sharp For Tigers In Pre-Season Warmups

A young group of boys will carry the hopes of Bay High on the gridiron this season.

They are young but eager and should make for some interesting football in the Tiger games during the next few months.

They will not be as strong as last year on the line but should be stronger in the backfield. With two small but adequate quarterbacks vying for first string duties, two experienced halfbacks, a big veteran fullback, and a number of other determined youngsters, who want to play ball, the Tigers should have one of its best backfields for the past several years.

But the line is an entirely different situation.

Its success depends on the speed which a bunch of young and inexperienced freshmen and sophomores can develop. But the boys are looking good even though they are green.

Donald Byrd and Marcel Anderson are two young guards, who show a lot of promise. In fact, Coach Lance Lumpkin is very optimistic about these youths.

On the subject, he said, "I feel I have two of the best young guards I have handled in a number of years. Of course, they have to develop much more but I am sure they will do so very fast."

At ends, which all expected to be the weaker offensive spots, a former All Star guard, Larry Landrum has taken over the duties of one terminal while John Jenkins and Fred DeHann are competing for the other job.

Henry Monti and Tommy Holden are not only capable halfbacks but they are shaping up into two of the best line backs Bay High has produced in a long time.

The boys are quick to size up plays and are quick to close holes in the line and cut down end runs.

Grady Perkins and Wayne Alliston are the starters fighting for the quarterback position in the quarter back place. Thus far the boys are on even terms, with each alternating at calling plays during scrimmage.

Coach Lumpkin, who is being assisted in his duties by Coach Donald Caldwell and Coach Jimmy Mason, is "well satisfied" with the turnout for pre-season.

He said, "We expect a few more after school starts. We only have six seniors on the entire squad."

"I feel that we are going to have a faster line than last year, and the boys will also be better blockers. Our offensive attack will be better than our defense because of the lack of experience in the majority of the linemen."

Bay High has thirty-two boys out for practice with nine returning lettermen.

The Tigers open the season with their annual Gulf Coast rival Pass Christian at the Harrison County School's field on Sept. 9.

Following that they have an open date.

Rockachaws To Be Weak In Backfield; Gex May Be Lost For Season

The St. Stanislaus football team will be much weaker this year than it was last season.

The biggest problem and headache at this time is in the backfield. It is not only weak in power but very weak in ranks.

Monday Coach Farley Day and Assist. Coach Herb Adams received two doses of bad news within an interval of a few hours.

A big fullback, who had been imported from the Cajun country of Louisiana got homesick and decided he liked the sugar cane fields better than the waters of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. So he packed his grip and rode the train back to his home town.

Next came the announcement that Walter Gex, a first string halfback from last year may be out for the entire season. He has a bad knee, and whether he will be able to play or not remains to be seen in the next week or so.

That leaves seven men in the backfield. 2 are lettermen, quarterback, Kenny Artigues, and halfback Billy Rhodes.

If Coach Day and Coach Adams can get a winning combination out of the small selection to choose from in the backfield, they will have to be classed with the Houdini of baseball, Casey Stengel.

That is the way he wins with the Yankees, but whether it can happen on the local football scene is the $84,000 question.

The line seems fairly strong. More so offensively than defensively.

Leading the brigade of linemen competing to gain berths on this year's squad are letterman, Leon Fazzio, Pat Mooney, Ulrich Wilbert, Ed Hargrove, Robert Pfeiffer and Mitchell Decur.

Stanislaus opens the season with Biloxi on Sept. 9 and then plays Gulfport another member of the Big Eight Conference. Both of these games are away.

Remarking on this year's team, Coach Day said, "Our defense is our biggest worry. We had good depth in the defensive line last year, but this year we don't."

"Our overall offensive attack is made up of three lettermen in the backfield, but we will still be lacking speed. We will have a much lighter team than we fielded last year."

He continued, "As far as physical condition is concerned the boys look in pretty good shape."

Thirty-two boys reported for practice. Of this number 10 are lettermen, with seven two-year lettermen. The last were either squadmen on last year's team or members of the junior team.

Wanted—Football players, preferably backfieldmen. All sizes and descriptions. Experience not necessary, but preferred. Apply at St. Stanislaus College. You will be well-come.

That is the situation at Stanislaus as it stands today. The material they have is fairly good, but they are suffering with the shorts in that category.

Coach Day and Coach Adams are faced with the problem of having only seven men in the backfield. Of these only two are lettermen.

Monday it was learned that a bit of a fullback that had come to Stanislaus from Alexandria, Louisiana was returning home. He was sick. Home sick that is.

The next bit of bad news was the announcement that Walter Gek, a two year letterman, may be out for the season, because of a knee injury.

All this coupled with one of the hardest seasons in years facing them, should instigate many sleepless nights, for the Stanislaus coaches.

We, in this corner wouldn't want to be in their shoes. But we can sympathize with them and lend them a crying towel whenever it is needed. Because the Dairy Bowl Champs of last year have very little chance of being in a bowl again this year. At least that is our belief.

Of course, if Coach Day and Coach Adams should pull a

Added Accommodations For Conventioners At Heidelberg Hotel

Convention guests of Jacksonville's Heidelberg Hotel are provided added accommodations with the September 1st opening of Heidelberg, Jr., a luxurious motel located on the eastern outskirts of the capital city.

Designed to provide enjoyable hours of leisure and recreation for convention delegates and their families, this new half-million dollar establishment brings a resort atmosphere to central Mississippi.

In addition to 100 air-conditioned units, Heidelberg, Jr., has a splendid restaurant with facilities for food service in the cool and refreshing outdoor.

Under construction and to be completed soon is an 82-foot by 32-foot year-round swimming pool surrounded by cabanas and tables and chairs shaded by gaily colored umbrellas.

Special attention has been given to children, who are to be provided with a playground and wading pool of their own, all under supervised care.

Nor has the dog been forgotten. Bring your pet along. Air conditioned kennels will make your pet as happy and comfortable as the rest of the family.

Roy L. Heidelberg, a well-known name among travelers and convention delegates, will soon announce a major improvement program for the Heidelberg Hotel in downtown Jackson.

The Heidelberg and Heidelberg, Jr., are a team that will make your convention a successful one.

Dr. Underwood State Chairman

March of Dimes

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 1.—The annual March of Dimes campaign to raise funds to combat polio has been set for January 2-31, 1956. For the eighteenth consecutive year, Dr. Felix Underwood, State Health Officer, will again serve as State Chairman.

"I count it a privilege to be associated with the loyal group of volunteers who support this worthy cause with their time, energy, and money," Dr. Underwood said, in accepting the appointment made by Foundation President Basil O'Connor.

The March of Dimes conducted simultaneously in every community throughout the nation each January, is the sole support for the polio chapters' patient aid program and the National Foundation's research and vaccine programs.

Mississippians gave a total of $549,178.70 to the January, 1955, March of Dimes campaign. This was the second highest amount on record for the state, and followed an emergency appeal in August of 1954, which totaled $170,000 for Mississippi. In the regular January drive of 1954, the Mississippi total was $674,854.86.

"Our volunteers, partly because they were inspired by the bright promises of the Salk vaccine, and partly because of their reserve that those for whom the vaccine comes too late shall not be forgotten, made an all-out effort, for which they deserve the highest commendation."

"Nevertheless," Dr. Underwood continued, "with a peak load of 1,600 polio patients whom we are trying to help back to useful, productive lives, and with new cases added each week during the current year, over half of the National Foundation chapters in Mississippi are forced to go to national headquarters for funds to meet hospital and medical care bills."

Already 47 counties in the state have advanced this year in the total amount of $32,115.

"Right now," Dr. Underwood said, "The National Foundation has notified him that in order to meet the calls made on it from chapters that have current surpluses for the funds in excess of what they will need for their own patient care program. It is estimated that about 30 Mississippi chapters are in position to give assistance for this financial crisis."

Dr. Underwood has appealed to polio volunteers to make early plans for the 1956 fund appeal. "Polio is not licked yet," the Health Officer said. "The Salk vaccine, according to the Francis report, is only 60 percent effective against one type of polio virus and 80 to 90 percent effective against the other two types."

"The vaccine is good, but not good enough. We must gird ourselves for a sustained assault against polio. Continued research is our hope. How long and how costly, no one can tell, but the future looks bright," the State Chairman concluded.

Millsaps College is today announcing the receipt of a gift in excess of $135,000.00, left to the college by the late Mrs. Mae Jack Cheek, of Memphis, to be used as a scholarship fund. The bequest is one of the largest gifts ever received by the college from an individual.

Mrs. Cheek, who prior to her death on August 12, 1955, resided at 1877 Peabody Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee, provided in her will for the establishment of the "Doctor Elbert Alston Cheek and Son Scholarships" in memory of her husband, the late Dr. Elbert Alston Cheek, and their son, the late Elbert Alston Cheek, Jr.

According to the provisions of the will, the scholarships are to be awarded on the basis of financial need and educational qualifications. Individual scholarships will be $500 and students may receive the award for as many as four years, provided they continue to meet the requirements of the college scholarship committee.

The committee awarding the scholarships each year will be composed of the President of Millsaps College, a member of the college faculty, and Elkin Jack, nephew of Mrs. Cheek, or some other relative of the family named by him.

In selecting the recipients of the scholarships, the committee is instructed to give preference to any applicant or applicants descended from Edward Jack, of Brandon, Mississippi, and from Robert T. Cheek, Sr., of Millville, Mississippi, provided always that such applicants are found to need financial assistance and to be qualified for the scholarships.

Arrangements for the Cheek scholarship fund for Millsaps College were completed during the presidency of Dr. M. L. Smith.

Advice On Sleep

Can we get by with less than the "normal" eight hours of sleep? How safe are sleeping pills? Can snoring be cured? These and other questions concerning sleep are answered by Blanka Clark in the September Reader's Digest.

"Normal" length of sleep differs among individuals. Five or six hours are probably sufficient if you find that (a) you can wake at the right time without an alarm, and (b) you are not sleepy during waking hours.

You can "repay" a sleep debt, if necessary. Even though you have had an hour or two less sleep than usual, each night for a week, a single late morning sleep makes up the shortage and leaves you as alert as ever.

The powerful barbiturate sleeping pill is safe when used according to prescription but dangerous if allowed to become habitual. The article warns that though the milder, non-prescription pills are safer, the effects of their constant use are not yet known.

Only a minority is kept awake by coffee. Many false believe that wakefulness will follow coffee-drinking and the belief spoils their sleep.

For instance, Benjamin Franklin recommended moving from a fatiguing, warm bed to a fresh cool one. Perhaps more helpful than counting sheep is to remember that merely lying quiet is almost as restful as sleep itself.

Sleeping on one's back produces the loudest snoring and the most lurid dreams. Snoring cannot be cured but its intensity may be diminished by discouraging back-sleeping. Try a pad attached to the back of pajama or gown.

A sudden awakening, caused by a short or a straight alarm, can have an ill effect. Alarm clocks should have a soft, long call. Few persons sleep so deeply as to require a loud, shocking alarm.

Sleep is so basic to life, the article says, that a man probably could not live ten days without it, though he might live six weeks without food.

SEVEN DEATHS PREDICTED FOR HOLIDAY WEEKEND

The Highway Patrol predicts that seven persons will be killed in highway mishaps over the forthcoming Labor Day weekend here in Mississippi. Eight were killed a year ago during the long holiday period.

Commissioner of Public Safety T. B. Birdsong in making the grim holiday prediction stated, "It is unfortunate that Mississippi will pay such a high price for the privilege of enjoying the Labor Day weekend."

The death rate on a normal weekend is tragic enough. (5 met, their death in highway accidents last weekend), but you can always anticipate more fatalities during holiday periods, he said.

The National Safety Council predicts 400 deaths nationwide—300 for the same weekend if it were not a holiday.

The holiday weekend officially gets underway at 6 p. m. Friday, September 2, and extends through midnight, Sept. 5. During the same three-day period last year, 76 were injured in 160 accidents. In 1953, 91 persons were injured, six killed, in 202 accidents.

All resources of the Mississippi Highway Patrol will be utilized over the holiday weekend, Chief of Patrol L. C. Hicks stated, urging motorists to drive carefully and observe all traffic laws. "This holiday slaughter is unnecessary," he stressed.

The end of Labor Day weekend will also mark the end of the summer safety campaign, "Slow Down and Live," being observed nationally. Last summer, Mississippi reduced its fatality rate 27.9 per cent during the "Slow Down and Live" period.

Civil Service Examinations Now Open

Examinations are now open for Career-Conditional appointments to the positions of Sheetmetal Work Foreman, WFF, $24.00 per hour, basic entrance salary, and Sheetmetal Worker, WB-15 $2.01 per hour, basic entrance salary, for employment at Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, according to the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi.

No written test is required. Applicants will be rated on the basis of their experience in the occupation for which application is made.

The minimum age limit is 18 years for these positions. There is no maximum age limit. The minimum age limit will be waived for persons entitled to veterans' preference. Further information and application forms may be secured from the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, the fifth U. S. Civil Service Regional Office, 5 Forsythe St., Atlanta 3, Georgia, or persons may apply at any post office for applications forms or information as to where such forms may be obtained.

Applications may be filed with the Executive Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners for Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi until further notice.

SAFETY RULES

If you expect to drive in the heavy traffic expected during the coming Labor Day weekend, it may pay you to look over the "Big Ten" safety rules outlined by Danny Eames, noted chief test driver for Dodge Division, Chrysler Corporation:

1. Traffic regulations are for your protection. Observe them.
2. Keep a safe distance between yourself and the car ahead, particularly at higher speeds.
3. Stay in your own lane on hills, curves, and in "no-passing" zones.
4. If driving at night, dim your lights on oncoming

5. The right of way way rightfully belong to you, but if a pedestrian comes along, give it to him. (And that doesn't mean "Let him have it")
6. Always be on the alert for children!
7. Know the proper hand direction signals and sure to use them!
8. Watch where you're going, and where the cars behind, ahead, and on both sides are going.
9. Give the other fellow more than his share of the road and watch him!
